The 2013 Jamboree

Get ready! The 2013 National Scout Jamboree is coming and it ain't your father's jamboree. We're talking seriously high adventure, people! Whitewater rafting, zip-lining, rappelling, mountain biking, hiking, and more - with 50,000 of your closest friends at the brand new Summit Bechtel Reserve in the wilds of New River Gorge, West Virginia.

The new site offers new opportunities

This Jamboree will have the old traditions along side brand new ones. There will be amazing adventures facilities designed and built by leaders in the action sports world. There will be world-class activities that are on the move from sun up to sun down.

July 15 — July 24, 2013

The Mississippi Valley Contingent

Because this Jamboree has a shorter planning time (one year less than normal) some of our council's plans are tentative. There are to be two troops each with 36 boys and 4 leaders. For the first time there will be two Venture patrols open to young men and women.

The troops will tour the Washington, D.C. area. For some, this will be a once in a lifetime experience. The Venture Crew will have the opportunity to vary its plans from the Scout Troops' plans.

Some specifics:

The troops will have two shake-down campouts before the Jamboree.

Tentative cost: $1795 (all food, transportation, touring, housing) - Registration to secure a spot is $175 (1st payment of total cost)
