

Black Hawk Lodge Camping Award

Recognition for 25, 50 & 75 Days and Nights of Camping

To earn this Black Hawk Lodge Camping Award patch you must meet the required cumulative number of days and nights camping. You may count your days and nights since and while you were a Boy Scout or Scouter. This total can include any combination of camping with the Scout's family, patrol, or unit but no Cub Scouts camping.

What Counts As Camping?

- * Sleeping in tents (no electricity)
- * Staying in rustic cabins (no electricity)
- * Under the open skies and primitive shelters
- * You participated in setting up and breaking camp
- * You participated in camp chores
- * You participated in camping activities (hiking, cooking, swimming, nature exploration, conservation projects, etc)
- * A full day of camping counts as a "day", late arrival and early departure days together count as a "day"
- * Camping trips you can verify that they took place (sign off by parents, Troop Leader, SPL)

What Doesn't Count As Camping?

- * Luxury motor homes
- * Campers with electricity
- * Lodges, motels, cabins with electricity
- * When you did not participate in setting up or breaking down camp
- * When you do not participate in camping type activities
- * Tent camping with electricity, generators, etc.
