

BOY SCOUTS OF AMERICA

How much does IAA retain for services?

The pricing structure for Boy Scouts of America is a flat fee of $180 per vehicle.

How much does the BSA National Office retain for services?

The National Office will take 5% of the proceeds to process the payment back to the local council office.

Does IAA handle the donation of boats and trailers? If so must a boat be trailered?

In most cases boats need to be trailered. Generally speaking, most of the boats that are not trailered would cost more to process than they are worth. Exceptions would be boats that are of higher value (i.e. a functional sailboat that is still in the water). There is simply not a competitive market for fiberglass hulls lacking a motor and a trailer. Each boat is treated uniquely and measured for its return vs. costs.

Can a donation made from our council page be designated to us irrespective of zip?

The donor must know the specific council name or council identifying number. If the donor does not know this information, the donation will go to the council in the donor's zip code.

Upon sale how fast are proceeds sent to the council?

Proceeds are processed and electronically transferred twice a month. IAA sends to national 2 times a month, so how quickly to they send to their councils. So is it 30 days before council gets paid

Does IAA provide a giving link for our website that would not require a donor to know the council name to select in a pull down menu?

Yes, a website link was provided in the email sent on September 8, 2011 by the Boy Scouts of America's National Development Office. Additional materials are on the Brand on Demand site as well.

Once a vehicle is donated, how quickly does IAA pick the vehicle up and is the cost for transportation included in the flat fee?

Within 100 miles of our 160 locations we pick-up within 24 hours, outside of that is typically two days. Yes, towing is included in the flat $180 rate.

Does IAA handle airplanes, campers, trailers, etc?

Yes, we handle and sell it all – from a moped to a tractor trailer, farming and construction equipment and everything in between.

Does IAA generate the 1098-C?

Yes, we manage all the tax reporting, donor tax forms and provide the donor with the sales receipt. We also take care of the charities responsibility to IRS at the end of the year.

What additional information or materials can I expect to receive?

Materials will be offered on the Boy Scouts of America's Brand on Demand site and communication will continue from the National Development Office.

What are the hours of the call center?

We have 24 hour coverage 7 days a week. The call center is open from 8 AM to 8 PM eastern time and an after hour answering service handles all other times.

What happens when the donor calls in to make their donation?

We collect some basic information in regards to the donor and their vehicle. We are setting the time for the tow to be scheduled and review the title documentation needed. We inform the donor to prepare the vehicle and we will be securing the title, keys and vehicle at time of pick up.

What happens when the donor makes their donation using the internet?

We collect some basic information in regards to the donor and their vehicle. We are notified as soon as they complete the donation online and then contact the donor immediately during business hours and set the time for the tow schedule and review the title documentation needed. We inform the donor to prepare the vehicle and we will be securing the title, keys and vehicle at time of pick up.

What if there is a title problem?

We are the single point of contact to assist the donor with any title needs. We review the title paperwork with donor upon the initial contact, and will work with the donor to collect the title paperwork to resolve any title problems. We require the title or documentation required obtaining title and we will apply for title and utilize our Title Solutions Department if needed. We also obtain lien releases if one is required.

When will the donor receive their tax receipt?

On average, their receipt is sent within 30 days after the pick up of the vehicle.

Is the donor's Social Security required?

A Social Security is not required if the vehicle sells below $500. If the vehicle sells for more than $499, per IRS we are required to have your Social Security number on the tax receipt and then the donor can deduct the actual sale price of their vehicle.

Is the donor's title required?

It is based upon the state laws within state that the vehicle is located in and year of the vehicle being donated. However, we will walk any donor through the title documentation needed, if the donor does not have a title we will have our Title Solutions Department assist in getting the proper documentation needed to obtain a duplicate title.
