Winter Dressing Hints

The best way to dress for comfortable warmth in winter is in layers or shells. Start with long johns, not too tight. Next, flannel shirt and wool trousers and over that, a wool turtleneck sweater. With earmuff and wool gloves, this will be enough if you're going to be active.

For more severe cold and less activity, add a light jacket, wool cap and heavy boots. Dry your hands before you put gloves on and keep your gloves dry, too. Keep your feet dry inside and out, use foot powder, dry them thoroughly. Put on dry socks; wear two pairs of well-fitting socks.
