

PRE-CAMP LEADER'S MEETING #2

MEETING AGENDA

- Our Philosophy
- Program Updates
- Administrative Updates
- Other Summer Opportunities
- Questions

Our Philosophy

- Focus on the Patrol Method
- Focus on the Adventure
- Better align the two Camp Schedules as we are ONE Mississippi Valley Council
- Diversify the program, as reasonable to ensure that SSR is the High Adventure/Shooting Sports camp and Eastman is the STEM/Aquatics Camp

The Program

Schedule Changes

- No OA Service Corps
- No First Year Camper Outpost
- SSR 1
 - 2pm Orienteering
 - 2pm Sporting Arrows
- SSR 2
 - 3pm Pistols
 - 9am Soil & Water Conservation
 - 2pm Pioneering
 - 11am Wilderness Survival
 - 2pm Sporting Arrows
 - 9am Cooking
 - 2pm Orienteering
 - 9am Rifle Shooting (there's a 2pm still)
 - Wilderness Survival Outpost

More Program Stuff

- Review Summer Camp Merit Badge Numbers
- Still Opportunities to Change
- Clarification on Paintball: Target shooting only, not shooting at others
- Lifeguarding REQUIRES Swimming Merit Badge in order to take. Must also be blue swimmer

Family Night & Visitors

- NO Family Night.
- Visitors are only allowed if they are there for program specific needs and are pre-approved by the Camp Director
- Visitors must still check in at the office and receive a visitor badge. Unapproved visitors will be sent home immediately.

Note on Staff

- 100% New
- For many of them, this is their first job.
- Please treat them like they were a part of your Troop.
- Summer Camp will look different. As we've been discussing for months. That's OK.
- If you have concerns/issues, please address them with the staff member, the program director, or myself.

Administrative Topics

Masks & Social Distancing

- Masks are required when indoors.
- Troops at Camp-Wide Functions must stay 30 feet apart. This will be enforced.
- Scouts are encouraged to bring a chair to their Merit Badge to spread out.
- Masks will be required at full camp functions.
- When in doubt, the #1 job of a Scoutmaster is to watch out for health and safety.

OA / Tribe Permission Forms

- Those being called out for the OA and Tribe will be required to have a completed permission form prior to being called out. These must be filed with the camp office by the unit or the organization by noon on the day of the call out.

First Day Schedule

- Gates open at 12:00pm. Please do not arrive early. Staff may not be on property or prepared to accept campers.
- Immediately unload gear to your campsite and begin setting up camp. Only one vehicle allowed back to the campsite to drop off and immediately return to the parking lot.
- Your Site Guide will meet you at your campsite.

First Day Schedule

- One Leader should report to the office/Trading Post with the following:
 - Medical Forms for all Scouts & Leaders
 - Swim Check Forms (if done prior to camp)
 - Tribe/OA Call Out Permission Forms
 - COVID-19 Form
 - Health Screening Form for all Scouts
 - Photo/Talent Release Form
 - ATV Participation & Hold Harmless

First Day Schedule

- 5:30 Dinner
- 6:30 Opening Day Leader's Meeting
 - SPL and SM
- 7:15 Worship Services
 - Catholic & Protestant
- 7:15 Opening Campfire
- 10:00 Quiet Time
